An anonymous friend has sent us the following lines wh ich, presuming on the torite/s permission, we insert in this place. THE SCEPTIC S DREAM. It was the Festival of S. Clement. I was at Home, and wandering with a friend among the stately ruins of the Colosseum. The gentle autumnal breeze brought to our ears the sound of distant church bells. said my friend, you, > I replied, the church itself is interesting, I grant > you, from its ancient architecture and frescoes, but as a > work of art alone, at least to me. The legendary meanings > of the paintings on its walls, are to me as mythical as the > history of Romulus and Remus. No, I leave such puerilities > to women and children. > with you, > was the answer, opening his English Prayer-book, Sunday. I fancied...
