

Divine Providence Lives of Ordinary People (Paperback)

By Dr Jimmie Joseph

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . During your school years, you studied the assigned material, watched films, attended labs, and listened to the instructors. Then graduation day came. There you were, wearing academic regalia, a robe in your school color with a funny hat and tassel, and you were sitting uncomfortably in a folding chair. The commencement speaker droned on, saying how you were the next and best generation, and telling about the places you would go, the things you would do, and how life's opportunities were out there for the taking! Then the commencement exercise ended and you stepped out into life. Did you ever think you'd wind up living the way you are? Most people would probably say no. If you're like most people, you were probably out sick the day they taught Clairvoyance 101. The subject was taught by a fellow with long hair and a little goatee who acted enigmatic. In life, people, even some Christians, use the Worldly Guide to Life for Dummies, and push open the forbidden door, not knowing what will come bursting out at them. The...
