And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS - Revelation 19:11-16 Coming out of years of life controlling situations and having battled with the long-term effects of early sexual imprinting and other addictions, I would have been the first one voted as least likely to succeed as a single Christian. I had said many times throughout two marriages that encompassed 22 years of my life, that it would be extremely difficult for me to be a Christian and single. As a result, through the writing of this book I have had to embrace my own continued healing in areas that are exposed when a heart is truly yielded to God. It is with this heart and this transparency that I challenge those of you that are walking similar paths to consider your ways....
