

The Failure of Acquisition Based Economics: And Desperate Need for Distribution Based Economics (Paperback)

By Lenard Latimer Jr

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book was written for a simple reason; to start a conversation about the evolution of our global economic system. It includes a conversation about the failure of our acquisition based economic system, and a conversation about our desperate need to move forward! Many books have been written about our economy; but this book hopes to start a conversation about replacing our failed system with a productivity and value driven, distribution based, economic system. It is a system that can fix our global economy so that it can meet the economic needs of 300 million Americans and 7 billion others who follow our economic lead. It manages to preserve the best parts of capitalism which are individual personal drive and ambition and preserve the American dream of opulence as proof of our success. The overwhelming evidence of the failure of our acquisition based economic system is all around us! Mass poverty caused by massive wealth. An over-manipulated, archaic, and over-burdened tax system that is failing to support the economic needs of our growing governments, public schools, national defense, infrastructure expansion...
