Brand New Book  Print on Demand .God works in miraculous ways to deliver us from the grip of numerous strongholds. In Never Gonna Give You Up, we see how God works through a man named Cue, whose preserving soul search brought about a host of realizations. Melvyn Woolard writes a deeply personal and introspective; recounting his lessons learned growing up in a New York City housing project. His exposure to an array of people provides him with an enriching perspective, as well as a determined mental fortitude. He introduces the reader to his friend, Cue as a young person growing up in New York City Housing Project who became addicted to drugs and personal turmoil depicts his yearning for God, and ultimately, the reality that many other drug abusers live in. But there is always deliverance, as Cue later becomes introduce to The Lady Angelina who told Cue that God would set him free from drugs. So she told Cue she would like to pray for him, and Cue said please do with tears still in his eyes. So she began praying for...
