

The Trouble with Tripoli (Paperback)

By Tim Paulin

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Sometimes you just know you've got to take a chance. Professor Wilson Knightly is anything but an unfortunate traveller--except for a recent car-wreck of a divorce. But when he travels to Greece to look up an old flame, what he finds is big-time trouble. The adventure begins on arrival, after he stumbles upon a former student who strangely avoids him. Knightly soon discovers that the young man is on a deadly mission to free a stunning beauty from a vicious criminal network. As he searches for Daniel, Knightly finds himself in a world where drugs and sex, as well as human beings, are bought and sold. He also begins to suspect that his long-ago lover may have dark and painful secrets of her own. The story unfolds against the backdrop of the increasingly hard times that haunt not just Greece--its economy and society, mind and heart--but the other Europes and the rest of the world as well. This novel marks the debut of the Wilson Knightly series.
