

The Unsung Heart Of Black America - A Middle Class Church At Midcentury

By IRVIN, Dona L

U.S / University Of Missouri Press, 1996. Hardcover. Condition: New. This biography of the Downs Memorial United Methodist Church in Oakland, California during the years 1949-64. Irvin begins the book with a discussion of the church's role in the East Bay Community during those years and of the church as a community. Subsequent reflections reveal the importance of these middle-class African Americans to the quality of life in their community. Irvin offers a commentary on post-1964 trends, including why some of the members profiled in the book are no longer participants in the church. Illustrated with 'B & W' photography. A 1st edition, with its dustwrapper in new condition. (241 pages & 14 pages of introduction).

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE
[4.27 MB]

Reviews

This pdf is wonderful. It is definitely simplified but excitement from the 50 percent in the ebook. You wont sense monotony at at any time of your time (that's what catalogues are for relating to should you request me).

-- Jaqueline Kerluke

I just started looking at this pdf. It can be rally fascinating throgh studying period of time. Its been printed in an extremely basic way and is particularly only following i finished reading through this publication where in fact altered me, change the way i really believe.

-- Mr. Stephan McKenzie