D, Vol. 2 of 2: Bishop of Aatal The first sign of friendliness [was] the dressing of the harbour with ?ags, as our ship came in sight round the bluff, our Captain being at first much puzzled to read the signals thus being run up, until it dawned upon him, why, they must know that we have the Bishop on board. Next the pilot - boat came tumbling out, bringing two or three friends shouting, Well, my lord, we ve come through the water to you, as you ve come through fire and water to us and then we landed, he, as usual, standing back to allow the women and children among his fellow - passengers to go first; and so it happened that we stepped a little puzzled into a close packed silent crowd, which broke into a hearty cheer a few minutes after, as he set foot on shore.
