Drama, humor, tears and the joy of traveling around the world to help others -- whether in the devastation of a tsunami, the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina, or in the jungles of South America, the very people Dr. Obrecht helps teach her, in turn, much about life, living and the value of relationships. Through Doc Dawns experiences, you may discover more about yourself and your purpose in life. Dawn V. Obrecht, M. D. , was graduated from the University of Maryland School of Medicine and did an internship in general surgery and residency in emergency medicine. She has been the medical director of a chemical dependency unit and is a professor at the University of Colorado Health Sciences Center. For many years she has had a busy family medicine practice. Licensed in several states, she now travels to rural communities to cover for physicians needing time off. Having been in recovery from drug addiction for over a quarter century herself, Dr. Obrecht uses her experience with life-threatening illness to identify with and help others to heal and to hear God. DocDawn lives in Steamboat Springs, Colorado, with her husband, Erik Landvik, where she writes and consults in addiction medicine. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
