At no time, did I ever include my credit card information or knowingly agree to any terms and conditions. After 4 months of physical rehab, my daughter was beginning to make great im-provements and our stay ended up being lengthened by an additional year. We fi-nally returned home in August 2008. In October 2008, my husband was paying our bills and asked me to take a look at our credit card statement. There were two charges for 10, one from Reservation Rewards and one from Shoppers Discounts. I did not know what these charges were for but I told my husband that I would look into it. I first called the 800 number that was listed on the credit card state-ment. I spoke with a customer service representative who told me that I had signed up for Reservation Rewards and Shoppers Discounts online after a movie ticket pur-chase on movietickets. com. I told the representative that I had not knowingly signed up for this service and asked how they had gotten my credit card number. She stat-ed that movietickets. com gave them my credit card number. I then asked what serv-ice, exactly, I was paying for. She stated that they offer coupons and discounts for restaurants and hotels. I told the representative that I had never gotten any cor-respondence, either online or via mail regarding my so-called membership. I then asked her to cancel my membership and also to tell me how much money I...
