iUniverse. Paperback. Condition: New. 216 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 5.9in. x 0.6in. What up! Just like to welcome you to this class here at W. F. U. I am Dr. Horatio Honeycutt. As you all know, a class in multicultural studies is required of all entering freshmen, so I'm happy that you've chosen this course to fulfill that requirement. I know that you will find this class stimulating, exciting, and truly challenging. So, welcome again! I'm passing out a syllabus for your perusal. This semester you will get acquainted with Black people in the urban ghetto of this city. We will be going on a field-trip into the heart of the hood to get a firsthand look at how the language is spoken. But I must warn you, before we get to that point you must do a complete overhaul of your perception of Black people. We will have to become as black as we can be as not to stand out and as they say in the hood, get our asses bumrushed. In other words, we don't want to draw too much attention to ourselves and cause the indigenous population to pummel our bodies into mutilated pieces of DNA. But not to worry, I've already established communication with some of the more violent elements in the community. See! You've already learned your first black word, bumrush. It means to suddenly bombard without warning; to attack. Put it in your vocabulary, you'll need it. Khalil Amani, Jive 101 Ebonics 1619 Khalil Amani offers his take on Black America through both poetry and prose in Hip-Hop-Operations. Amani is a graduate of San Diego Mesa College and the author of Ghetto Religiosity 2000. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
