Excerpt from Who May Be Communicants in the Presbyterian Church?: Being the Substance of a Sermon Preached in St. Andrew s Church, Toronto, on Sunday, October 23rd, 1887 Is it of no consequence, then, what a man believes about the points referred to? May he think what he pleases? Far from it. It is of great moment that he should think truly, under the guidance of the Spirit of truth Himself, concerning such matters. Moreover, he will be a foolish man if he throw away as worthless the results of the thought of past generations. And, yet, it remains true that he is not bound by any traditional interpretations of, or deductions from, the Word of God, but is at liberty to go afresh to the fountain and drink for himself. It may be granted, for instance, to be essential that a Christian man should believe in God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit; but it does not follow that he accepts all the statements of the Nicene Creed, or of the Athanasian, regarding these distinctions in the divine nature. So, again,...
