One person s attempt to give voice to his modern psalms, Sandler s work is a look at what it means to be laid open and honest with God - praise as well as frustration; joy as well as despair. His poetry reflects on what does it mean to sacrifice jobs, potential family, to leave behind friends, homes, and possessions to live out God s call on his life. These poems are from the heart. Often raw, sometimes jaded or confused, while other times are found to be shouts of happiness and love for life - the one that has been, is, and yet to be.
