LEARNING EXPERIENCES IN DEVELOPING ELECTRONIC PORTFOLIOS

VDM Verlag. Paperback. Condition: New. 160 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.8in. x 0.6in. The use of electronic portfolios (EPs) as a means of authentic assessment is increasingly popular in teacher education programs. Portfolio assessment allows teacher candidates to select and reflect on artifacts that demonstrate teaching competencies. When students add multimedia artifacts and reflections to portfolios, they present a much richer picture of their abilities than possible in traditional assessments. This study investigates the students' learning experiences in developing and designing their EPs. The findings show that creating EPs helps students...
