

Marriage vs. Katrina, The Spirit of Divorce

By Errol Daisley

Infinity Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 128 pages. Dimensions: 8.1in. x 5.2in. x 0.4in. The book brings a spiritual perspective to the problems of marriage and highlights the importance of the faithfulness of the father to his vows to provide the cohesion and the environment that would make the home a functional entity in any society. It identifies emotional scars in spouses as the major source of ensuing problems. The book examines Gods plan for marriages, the consequences of sin in the marriage, the provision for restoration of relationships and the keys for making the marriage functional. Particular emphasis was placed on the plight of children, the innocent victims, and what is to be done to help them and what they should do to help themselves. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
