Unprecedented in both scope & depth, 'The Faith' presents the watershed events & people (saints, heretics, inquisitors, mystics, soldiers, popes & politicians) through which Christianity & the course of secular history have evolved. It portrays the power & beauty of a faith that has endured for so long & inspired so many. But it deals w/ every shade of darkness as well as light, for there is, as Moynahan notes, something of the wolf in the religion that adores the Lamb. Moynahan traces the extraordinary journey that Christianity has made from its start as a small & vulnerable sect ("They were crucified or set on fire," Tacitus wrote of Christians in Nero's Rome, "so that when darkness came they burned like torches in the night") to the world's greatest congregation of almost 2 billion baptized souls. 'The Faith' opens w/ the story of Jesus himself, the Resurrection, & the...
