Arbee is a senior student of Theater Arts at the prestigious Hanyad University. The university is hosting a stageplay for graduating students. And Arbee will be sharing its lead role with the most popular girl in school, Venna. Before the stageplay starts, everything changes. Things are never as they appear. A man attacks the school, but the police won t believe the report. Her friend becomes her enemy. Her friend gets muded, but the media won t listen to her story. Who s lurking in the shadows, watching everything? All lies have loose ends. And the loose end is: the unknown narrator.
