Motivational Press, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Jerome Tuccille s hilarious memoir about religious conflict and sexual adventurism has been described as a cross between J.D. Salinger s Catcher in the Rye and J.P. Donleavy s The Ginger Man. Tuccille impresses the reader with his writing skills and his command of the English language. He has a great wit and a fine sense of style. His description is appropriately detailed and his imagery vivid and striking. He s excellent at blending narrative with exposition. I found myself quite involved in the exciting, emotional, and traumatic incidents in his book. I was unable to put it down until I had finished reading it. This doesn t happen often in the publishing field. The book is an eminently readable collection of yarns, covering the author s roots in the Bronx, his travels around the globe, and his various religious conversions and sexual misadventures. Tuccille is a talented storyteller, and he has a knack for bragging and mocking himself at the same time.
