OUT OF DOORS FOR WOMEN, VOL. 1: DECEMBER 1893 (CLASSIC REPRINT) (HARDBACK)

Forgotten Books, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . This book usually ship within 10-15 business days and we will endeavor to dispatch orders quicker than this where possible. Brand New Book. Excerpt from Out of Doors for Women, Vol. 1: December 1893 If you want a regular circus in the back yard, invest a dime in a package of mixed gourd seeds and plant by a picket fence. Train them along, and if you pour dishwater around the roots every day the first surprise comes, to see the things grow, perhaps shutting out an ugly back yard next door, and also being a pretty background for marigolds, asters or zinnias planted in front. Some sunny morning take a view of your fence covered with the prettily shaped leaves and the nest-egg gourds so white hanging all over it, mixed with the large yellow flowers, and however blue, you will take a more cheerful view of things. Furthermore, the vine has something for every member of the family. Grandma can darn her stockings on a small gourd; mother can use them for nest eggs; the artistic daughter can carve pretty boxes and cups, and paint pictures on the hard, smooth surface; the little girls can make a whole yard of animals out of the small ones, using matches or toothpicks for legs; the boy can make a curiosity for his cabinet by putting a bottle over the bud: it will expand and fill the space, and the other boys will wonder how such a big thing could be put into such small quarters. Then there are dippers, dish cloths, and a host of other things that can be puzzled out, and you will find your gourd vine a regular picnic for the family. - Sister Gracious. So many flower lovers...
