Her brother Neus is one of her closest friends and Gwen, their next door neighbour is more of a mother to them than their biological one ever was. After ending her affair with a married man named Jack and partying every night since, Rosalie begins to realise that perhaps she isn't as content with her life as much as she has everyone believe. Matthew Mason is a successful, handsome and charming man. In his business as a PR agent, he is powerful and could have anything he wanted. So when he meets the witty, gorgeous Rosalie he finds himself intrigued by the mysterious beauty whose personality is as fiery as it is vulnerable. Unfortunately Matthew has experienced pain and heartbreak in the past, which had to remain a secret to protect his family. Soon their battle of wits, outrageous flirting and misconstrued conversations bring them closer together and further along the path to happiness. Featuring horses, dogs, ex-boyfriends, meddling mothers, a pregnant woman, a shy assistant and a protective brother, Nothing ventured Nothing gained is a story of fun, family and love. About the Author Katie is 18 and lives in Henley-On-Thames with her family. She attended The Henley College achieving two A Levels in English and Photography.
