Excerpt: . . . east by Eighth avenue, on the north by One Hundred and Thirty ninth street, on the south by One Hundred and Thirty eighth street, and on the west by a line parallel with Eighth avenue, and distant 125 feet westerly therefrom. This land was divided into twelve lots of various sizes. Six of these front on Eighth avenue. The two corner buildings fronting on the avenue are each 19 feet 11 inches wide, while each of the four inside buildings fronting on the avenue is 40 feet wide. These avenue houses are divided into a great number of flats. The back lots, a parcel 50 feet wide, running from street to street, has been divided into six lots, each a little more than 16 feet wide, and each with a private dwelling on it. A brief method of reciting the record of an instrument will be used in this stipulation. For example: will mean that the instrument in question was recorded on May 6, 1887, in Liber 2181 of Mortgages, at page 42, in the office of the Register of the City and County of New York. Where an instrument is recorded among conveyances instead of mortgages the letter C. will be used instead of M. , and if among discharges the abbreviation Bis. will be used. The letters and lot numbers by which the twelve lots in question, with the houses thereon, are referred to and identified at different times in the testimony...
