Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Town of Alton, New Hampshire: 2000 Annual Report Almost from the day in 1983 that Bob and his wife Cathy came to Alton after retirement from 42 years as a professional in Boy Scouts of America, he was an active participant in Town affairs. Bob was a member of the Planning Board, Budget Committee and served 5 years as a Selectman and during that time, he was actively involved with developing Alton s Master Plan. As a school volunteer, Bob coached The Odyssey of the Mind, and in 1998 at the age of 80, he was elected Town Moderator. We all remember in 1999 going home at eleven o clock in the evening after a smooth, succinct Town Meeting. For several years he served as President of United Association of Alton, a group of people that represented the different home owners associations in Alton. Bob also served on the Board of Directors of the VNA/Hospice (4 years as president). He created the Kitchen Cabinet to guide the fund-raising efforts for the Gilman Library addition. His volunteer efforts were recognized by the State, the Municipal Association and library groups. Alton was so very fortunate that Bob chose to settle here and to use his energy, enthusiasm and talents in speaking and volunteering for Alton. Who could forget his poetry, his MC ing at dinners and retirements and using detergent boxes and bottles to get your interest. Bob greatly enjoyed such festivities and used his special talents in writing and speaking for everyone s pleasure. Bob s generosity of his personal time and his accomplishments will long be remembered and appreciated by those of us who were fortunate enough to know...
