Revolver Publishing Jan 2014, 2014. Buch. Condition: Neu. Neuware - In his installations, sculptures and collages, René Zeh examines the superficial perfection of our contemporary world, duly revealing the discrepancy between the designs for a better world and its actual implementation. In so doing, the coordinates of design, architecture and lifestyle shift in favour of a seemingly perfect but essentially flawed environment which has elevated living to become a social spectacle in which modern subjectivity must continually present itself. With texts by Marcus Lutzkemeyer, Dr. Vanessa Joan Müller and René Zechlin. 145 pp. Englisch, Deutsch.
