

Friday, Saturday, Sunday In Texas: A Year in the Life of Lone Star Football, from High School to College to the Cowboys (Hardback)

By Nicholas Eatman

HarperCollins Publishers Inc, United States, 2016. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. In Texas, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday mean only one thing: Football. In Texas, nothing is bigger than football. It doesn't matter if you're a fan of high school, college, or the NFL; when it comes to football, the love of the game is bred in every Texan's blood. Every Friday, Saturday, and Sunday from August to January, fans across the Lone Star State—from big cities like Houston and Dallas to small towns in the panhandle and the Gulf Coast—head to living rooms and stadiums to watch their favorite high school, college, and NFL teams battle on the field, proving that in Texas, even at the highest levels, all football is local. In Friday, Saturday, Sunday in Texas, writer Nick Eatman chronicles a year in the life of Texas football, following a high school team (the Plano Wildcats), a college team (the Baylor University Bears), and an NFL team (the Dallas Cowboys) through their turbulent 2015 seasons and blending their stories into a unique, eye-opening account of Lone Star football. Going beyond the highlight reels and into the locker rooms, Eatman brings into...
