The rooms are large, well heated, and with facilities for proper ventilation. About 425 young women are employed. The hours of work are from 7 a. m. to 5:30 p. m., with forty-five minutes for luncheon at 12 o clock. Recently the fourth floor of the building has been arranged for a dining room. There are tables and seats, and here about 300 young women eat their lunch. The change of atmosphere from the workrooms and change of position have already produced a marvelous increase in health and comfort. There is a good piano in the room, on a raised platform, and someone is always at hand to play for the rest of the girls. Once a week the noon intermission is lengthened to one hour and on this day a short informal practical talk is given or a Bible lesson taught....
