AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a stirring story of two enterprising youth who miraculously make it on their own, with the aid, protection and comfort of a highly intelligent and loving dog. The sister who was eleven, her brother, thirteen, and their companion female Lab, have no choice but to keep running after witnessing the gruesome murder. Three cunning minds kept them just one step ahead of the law. Only by sharing and sharing alike, the responsibilities, perils, pleasures, hardships and love are the three of them able to survive. Early maturation presents a huge problem for the three of them. Funny money, which seemed such a blessing, turned out to be their greatest nightmare. The World War II mystery finally unravels itself into a joyous reunion.
