Valley Independent Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 158 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. I recall being a four year old standing miserably beyond a pair of iron hospital gates, listening to French being spoken. One and three-quarter centuries on, I am walking contentedly on familiar cobblestones by the Polist river looking forward to going inside the green wooden house. No matter that the building is a mock-up of the one destroyed by soldiers during the Great Fatherland War. I listen to an actor reading Son Smeshnogo Cheloveka The Dream of a Ridiculous Man and I recognise the words as my own. Stories about stories about stories. Layer upon layer so they become storeys. Dreams within dreams. Visions of visions. And I understand Dostoevskys place in my life. From a lovelorn teenager to a faithful husband and doting father, from a drizzly town hall entrance to a five-star Siberian hotel with no third floor, from exterior to interior, from below to above. A matrioshkiscscope of existence. We all have to learn some time. Because the clock doesnt stop. Ever. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
