Alfred Music, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 300 x 218 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Wynn-Anne Rossi s Along the Mississippi takes a trip down the Mississippi River in four distinct movements. The journey begins with Swiftly Flowing River, a flowing movement that highlights where the river begins in Itasca State Park in Minnesota. Next, Stride Through St. Louie depicts the jazz roots of St. Louis, Missouri with a stride left-hand accompaniment and swing rhythm. A Tribute to Mark Twain, featuring a warm and expressive melody, honors the spirit of this American icon whose writing evoked the spirit of the Mississippi. The suite closes with full, rich chords and a nostalgic melody in View of the Delta Queen, a majestic tribute to the steamboat that is now considered an historical landmark. Stride Through St. Louie and Swiftly Flowing River are Federation Festivals 2014-2016 selections.
