Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Parliamentary Companion, 1852: Twentieth Year; New Parliament Sntcx this Ana was first undertaken, nineteen years have Weed away, seven administrations have been summoned to the councils of the Sovereign, six parliaments have been elected, and five have been dissolved. Within this period imi tatora and plagiarists without number have too often sought to intercept the just rewards of an original design, and to sustain a precarious existence by borrowing almost every feature of typography, language, and decoration. But the turn K of mind which dictated spoliation was naturally incapable of 1 impartiality; and those who appropriated without hesitation the outward features of a successful plan contributed at least 5. One item to their compilations - the taint of political bias. It is 0 not surpsning therefore that this volume, which, during every X ministerial vicissitude since the passing of the Reform Bill, has aimed at avoiding party tendencies, should have succeeded in acquiring public support; and that it should once more appeal to a just and generous body of readers with the con ld fidence of an enlarged experience and the...
