Excerpt: .Efficient Reliable Versatile I deal C ompact Endurable ITH the ofilce hot an the pavements hotter, to say nothing of the impossibility of setting an earlier date of publication because the printers strike upset the composing room s schedule of work, compilation of the July Issue has not been an unmixed joy. And yet, not for a. minute have we tired 01 our functlon of interpreting for you the nontheatrIcal motion-picture activities of your country, for there is a potent satisfaction in the sense that we are to an increasing degree reading your film pulses and coming to know what will most effectively and most readily adjust your difficulties and add to your pleasures in this worn. + The first editorial is important to you, for it gives you a concrete example of a policy that we believe is mistaken, and is a. verification of our statement that beginning with the June issue MOVING PICTURE AGE takes definite stands for definite beliefs. You will note that no headings are used for our editorials, and thereby hangs a reason. Only a few of you subscribers are so situated that you can drop in for a chat with us at Chicago, and we are eager to know you and to have you know us; but you will never really be acquainted with the true us, with our ideals and our reflexes, if you select from among several, and read, one editorial whose heading appeals to you,...
