The art of teaching is a process of continuing development involving years of study, experience, and hard work. The dedicated teacher never stops searching for ways of self-improvement. This book is for those who want to refine their teaching skills and gain new ideas. The topics range from ethics, philosophy, and psychology to advertising, record keeping, and collecting money. The explanations contain sufficient detail so that even a beginning teacher can benefit. It is hoped that experienced teachers will view the obvious as a refresher and concentrate on those portions of the text that complement their level of expertise. We sincerely hope that this book will enhance and give a new perspective to your teaching!.
