In Kevin Lucia s latest installment of his growing Clifton Heights mythos, Sheriff Chris Baker and Father Ward meet for a Saturday morning breakfast at The Skylark Dinner to once again commiserate over the weird and terrifying secrets surrounding their town. Sheriff Baker shares with Father Ward the story of a journal discovered in the ruins of what was once an elaborate koi pond and flower garden, which regales a tale of regret, buried pain, and unfulfilled debt. Father Ward reveals the story of a tortured man from the nearby town of Tahawus, who visited his confessional seeking solace from a cosmic horror he can never outrun. Sophan - Jake Burns has always been a bit.off. Rude, awkward, sometimes brutish, he s tolerated by Nate Slocum and his friends because he hits a mean line drive, and because they all know but don t discuss the abuse he faces at the hands of his troubled father, a Vietnam veteran consumed by his demons. But Jake is suffering something far worse than domestic abuse, and when Nate discovers what, he faces an impossible choice: help Jake and put himself in the path of evil, or abandon him, only to damn himself in the process. The Man in Yellow - Stuart Michael Evans has suffered from cerebral palsy all his life, but he s made due. Sure, his preacher dad is always yammering about the healing grace of God and God s will, saying all he needs is faith and someday he ll be healed, but Stuart mostly ignores him. Life isn t perfect, but it isn t awful either, so Stuart figures he doesn t need God to heal...
