I suffered a concussion in a young businessmen basketball league. It turned out that I had a blood disorder, and when I hit my head, I formed a blood clot in my brain stem. This injury affected my coordination throughout my body, thus affecting my vision, speech, and locomotion (walking). I cried for about a year! My parents didnt know what to do. Finally, I was enrolled in an out-of-town rehabilitation center. I was forced to deal with my disability. In doing so, I realized that I had a rock-solid family. Also, my cognitive skills were intact. In short, I was a mental giant among the other clients. I discovered confidence, patience, and endurance with these qualities. Ill have the opportunity to do something positive. Stephen M. Ambrose This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
