PICKING UP THE PIECES: HEALING FROM LIFE S BETRAYALS TRANSITIONING FROM BEING A VICTIM TO SURVIVOR (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Picking up the pieces is an extraordinary story of a man who suffered an injustice and experienced tremendous emotional injuries as a result. Picking up the Pieces, is a well written, step-by-step instruction of how one gets past the pain of betrayal and into the healing process, which crosses Christian faith with Psychology to bring about healing from the psychological abuse he received. It explains the sexual and psychological abuse suffered by men, and how this abuse is often overlooked by authorities. In Stephan s first book, A Heart Held Ransomed, he describes the unbelievable ordeal, which ripped apart his family and brought him to his knees. Beginning in 2002 and ending in 2008, Stephan and his family were victims of an unscrupulous counselor. Over the years local headlines have covered the story, but no one really knew the damage this ordeal had left on Stephan, this is until now. In his new book, Picking up the pieces, Stephan talks about his experiences and about his relationship with Christ. It is a book that exemplifies the healing hand of God in the midst of madness. Stephan candidly, describes how God comforted him in his time of need and gave him the strength and encouragement to move forward and face his fears. Out of the ashes, Stephen stepped up and began putting the pieces of his life back together and has been encouraging others along the way. His story reveals the faithfulness of God. Yet, it clearly outlines the frustrations and insecurities, which were pressing on Stephan during the midst of the turmoil. Picking up the pieces is never easy, but with Christ it became manageable for Stephan. It is a book, which...
