

So, You Said You Wanted to Get to Know Me!: Thoughts That Cross the Average Man's Mind (Paperback)

By Brett A. Reif

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . At the root of it, I believe every human is filled with an angel and a beast. Both sides have their benefits, but too much of either is not for the best. The angel side allows us to see the beauty in life; the beauty in others. The beast aids us in survival, because let us admit it, life is cruel. If we're too angelic, then we get stepped on while we admire the flowers. If we embrace the beast too much, then destruction is left in the wake of our paths. Here I find myself, the average man, fighting the never-ending battle that resides in all of us. Though we may never be able to speak openly about it, we can write it. This is what I have done. Instead of just tucking it away, I have decided to put it out there for all of you. Here you will find the beauty of life through my eyes. The pain and anguish will be evident. To love is to live and there is a fair share of that too. Of...
