Outskirts Press, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Bridging the gap from yesterday to forever. The Covered Bridge at Cravens Creek is the beautiful, tender, playful and intoxicating story of Titus Harrington and the sassy young stranger who lures him into forever with a pair of ivory lace boots. With a perfect balance of happiness and struggles, the life they build will jump from the pages to introduce itself to you. Titus and Bootsie (the name he gives his wife), marry young, after he proposes to her in the place that becomes the center of their lives. Like a time capsule, the covered bridge notes each life event, and carries it safely into the reaches of the future where it becomes one with infinity. Supporting characters, Ma Hattie and Miss Patsy, are full of spunk and surprises. Despite their ages, they refuse to allow the best of themselves to die. You ll be jolted with astonishment as some of their secrets are revealed. But they ll weave a blanket of warmth that will embrace your heart, making them a part of your fondest memories. You ll be left wanting to visit the covered bridge to dangle your feet in the refreshing waters of Cravens Creek.
