Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Good is no longer good enough. The twenty-first century minister must continually strive to achieve excellence. That goal applies to all ministry activities, from preaching to leading people, from effective financial management to vital leadership strategies; all presented in this book, expressing a single basic truth: whatever you are doing in the ministry today, no matter how well you are doing it, it can be done better still. Great pastors, Achievers, scientists, and other successful people have always known this truth and have spent their lives pursuing excellence. Great ministers have the same vision. They understand that the pursuit of excellence in all events of life and ministry is endless, that each advance sets the stage for the next. Any one can make it to any height as long as he s ready to pay the price. Every thing of value carries a cost. Excellence is not a gift; it is a choice and a choice that places definite demand. Ministry is for glory and honor. A call to ministry is a high calling in life. Every calling of God is a high calling. A calling to ministry is the highest honor that can come upon any mortal man. Whether the information and advice in this book is familiar or new, excellence oriented attitude will follow by understanding the facts, absorbing the keys, and applying them. Excellence is a product of a resourceful exercise of the senses. And every colorful result on these is a product of good use of the senses. IN THIS POWER PACKED MINIBOOK, YOU WILL -Learn how to guarantee your financial breakthrough in ministry -Build purpose driven and excellence oriented ministry -Develop your unique ministry skill for super...
