Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In this dramatic work for the stage, the Rossiter family goes about its everyday experiences, trying to muddle through, as they negotiate downward mobility in one of Colorado's more sought-after zipcodes. The play follows the structure of Anton Chekhov's Three Sisters, with each act taking place 5 years after the previous act. This play wrote itself after the Columbine Massacre of 1999, which took place in Mr. Morrell's home town. The recent shooting at his own alma mater impelled him to share this play with those who might be interested. This play has yet to receive a production.
