Excerpt: .Syrt a calm port and wild Malea yield A tranquil shore, and the poor sailor shield, Than mortal e er your mad career arrest, And check the fury of your vicious breast. Lo! she who bore the Cretan bull s disdain Put false fir cow-horns on, her end to gain; Salmonis burning for Enipeus arms, Gave to the river-god her maiden charms; Foul Myrrha left her aged father s bed To screen neath new-born leaves her hateful head: Why name Medea s love, which, turned to hate, Butchered her babes the mother s ire to sate? Or Clytemnestra, whose unholy flame Made Pelops royal house Mycenae s shame? Scylla, for Minos beauty all a-fire, Shore the bright lock whose loss discrowned her sire. O fatal dower for doting maid to bring, Love s treason oped thy gates, O luckless king! Be happier torches yours,...
