

Saleenah s New Life (Paperback)

By Lydia L. Burnett

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The story you are about to read is about a young girl named SALEENAH who has everything a girl could possibly want or need, born in a family who has it ALL and parents who have their own law firm, the best in their town. Saleenah s parents have set up for her, in the event of their death, to inherit the estate. Saleenah s father also sets up for her to temporarily go to a girls shelter to show her that things don t always come on a silver platter. One day in an instant everything is turned upside down when a storm hits the family s Victorian home and the people dear to Saleenah are taken away forever. How will Saleenah cope? What will happen to Saleenah now? What will her future be? This story takes on a special meaning today, that life can be turned upside down in an instant. Showing the importance of families and that we can come out on top. I hope this story reaches the heart of those who read it.
