Outskirts Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .I was raised by my aunts after my mother was institutionalized. My father had abandoned the family years prior, the only thing we shared was our names. I turned eighteen; the state money ran out and my aunts pushed me to get on my own. I rented a home, got married and soon divorced. I walked away with nothing and found myself living in a friend s basement. It was 1992, Vanilla Ice had a hit record. A girl I was dating wanted to be in a band and dance on MTV. I was quick with rhymes and I wrote songs. We got a few gigs and things looked like they were turning around. Time passed by and I rarely visited my sedated mother. I didn t know what had driven her crazy until she passed away. She was a fortune teller, and on the eve of her death I inherited her gift. I never knew she was a psychic. I had bad habits; I had been drinking and drugging when the gift came to me. I thought I had gone insane. I was in uncharted water, and the songs I wrote were the fortunes I read from strangers that touched me at my shows. I decided to keep my gift a secret.
