

Bill Cosby Ain t Crazy (Paperback)

By Coutreyer Keith Coutreyer

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Bill Cosby Ain t Crazy, is a resource for anyone who is charged with the awesome responsibility of providing guidance to a young person. Crazy will be particularly helpful to parents and educators alike. Crazy is a call to action for all parents and caregivers, asking them for more active and responsible participation in the raising and development of their young people. The book also acknowledges the fact that many parents are working hard to give their children both the support and structure that is needed; details the challenges facing many of our schools and communities which result from dealing with children who are not receiving the necessary parenting required to become positive members of either group; and attempts to highlight the great work being done by the hardest working and least appreciated group of people on the planet, public school teachers all across this country. Inspired by the provocative comments made by Mr. Bill Cosby as he called for the community to look at where we are and do more to get to where we need to be. The other great inspiration...
