Penskills Publishing, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 129 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Hilarious adventures in the life of a betting shop legend. How he ever reached adulthood is a miracle in itself. The ghost hunt that went very wrong, caused the barmaid to pee her pants. But that s nothing compared with the effect it had on the courting couple in the car parked nearby. How do you begin to understand a young man who packs in his job as a trainee architect to go cleaning cars at Luton airport,just to win a bet. He really shouldn t drink. Being escorted out of their country by the German border control police department meant a long walk home. During 43 years in the betting industry he was held up and robbed twelve times. He was very tempted to name his book, Life looking down a gun barrel. Heart of gold and memory like a sieve, ask his first wife. It was worse still with his second one,she couldn t stand the sight of him.How do you explain losing the house in a game of cards followed by a game of pool, followed by.! He must have had a few good points though, because over the years he raised more than half a million pounds for sick and terminally ill children.His reward was to bring some happiness into their life and to see them smile.He started a seafood business and watched it growing towards exciting proportions,the world was his oyster. Then he put a shark in charge of a plaice and was hung up to dry like a kipper. At one point in his career it appeared that each time he worked in a greyhound stadium, it would be pulled down to make way for...
