Reviews

*It is great and fantastic. I actually have read and so i am certain that i am going to going to go through once again yet again in the future. I realized this ebook from my dad and i encouraged this book to find out.

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This is a book of poetry I know you will enjoy. Please indulge yourself. It is my third published book of poems. Bare Trees The beauty of bare trees right before the sun comes back Love just before it consummates in a full-blown relationships A man right before he passes on what he knows to the next generation Poems written by an unknown author who questions his worth right before the public recognizes what he s written Ah, the value of everything right before the masses catch on and drive the price up; a Van Gogh worth millions when he could sell nothing all the time he painted and lived Bare trees naked silently awaiting spring and bursting to green wondrous life A Modulating Pulse Changes at random intervals Impossible for the ordinary mind to predict Marveling at the symmetry of what happens In a life, asking forgiveness, sympathy or A merciful conclusion, not often aware it is Modulating on top of destiny and heredity, Social inequality where the spokes of a huge Complex turning wheel meet in the center, Unaware in there of the origin or destination, Random intervals disguised as something Else, hands worn out trying to hold on to Constantly changing patterns desperately Seeking permanence in a world of flux and Change with no rational way out Twixt Twixt you and I There is a space That never goes away Even with our skin Touching skin Rubbing, kissing, making love There is a space A separate logic A different being The World There is nothing in the world Worthy of betraying my relationship with God - And yet I am tempted each and every day.
