By William Evans

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Romans and I and II Corinthians It is a real question as to whether there has ever been a time when so many so-called gospels have been proclaimed as divinely ordained ways of salvation as we find extant at the present time. Cults and isms there are by the scores, each with its pretension to be the infallible voice of God speaking to the crying needs of the human soul. The mere fact of the existence of spurious gospels is not in itself peculiar to this time. Even at the time when Luke wrote his gospel many false gospels, so-called, were extant. In the preface to Luke we read: Forasmuch as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us, even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eyewitnesses, and ministers of the word: it seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent...
