You have a real desire to quit smoking, and although you may have failed in the past, now there are tools to kick the habit quickly, easily and permanently. It does not matter that people, even your own self, may say discouraging words, or look at you with disdain for smoking, or that you you feel hopeless because you have tried to quit before. What does matter is that you do want to beat the habit, and now with the tools and techniques provided in this book you can absolutely achieve success, today and forever. No more struggling, no more disappointment, no more defeats. the powerful teachings provide you with the guidance enabling you to be the hero of your own success story. You will feel the joy of finally being in control, you will see how others look at you with new-found respect, and you will finally be able to say I quit smoking, and it was the easiest thing I have ever done! How to Quit Smoking in 1 Day gives you what you have been needing in order to achieve the success that you desire. You will be able to immediately take control of the habits and impulses that have tormented you, and shift all that power into a positive and focused direction that frees you from all burdens of worry and tension normally associated with stopping smoking. Your triumph over the habit is at hand!
