It is national, and has erased all sectional lines. The old Mason and Dixon s Line has been obliterated in the expression of a new national sentiment centered in the people s love for the memory of Lincoln, who belongs alike to the North and South, the East and the West. The Grand Army of the Republic has issued a special order calling upon every post to properly celebrate the day, through cooperation with some other organization or independently. Their camp-fires burn everywhere. The Governor of every State in the Union has appointed a special centenary committee to represent each State, respectively, in the national celebration that takes place at the Lincoln birthplace farm in Kentucky and to foster local celebrations in every city, village, and community within its commonwealth confines. Lincoln s native State is planning the construction of a modern automobile road connecting Louisville with the farm, to be known as the Lincoln Pike. Senator Knox has introduced a bill into Congress for Federal surveys of a proposed Lincoln memorial road to be constructed between Gettysburg and Washington. In Illinois Lincoln s old home people, at Springfield, will have a large mass-meeting. In Chicago they are planning to make a Lincoln week of it. About...
