

Three Months in Pennsylvania: Diary of a Freedom Fighter (Paperback)

By Suzanne Cruz

Jetlaunch, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . It is a desperate time for America. The fighting and division had not been this great since the Civil War. At a time when many pulled their curtains closed, this is the true story of one woman who threw them open. This is not only her journey, but every American's forgotten journey toward American Greatness. Through the diary of a modern-day freedom fighter, rediscover the heroes and role models that made America. Fall in love again with the country that has transformed and touched the world, changing countless lives and empowering millions of people to search for their own best selves. This wise and rapturous book is a unique look into a grassroots movement, a world that many do not know exists: the fight to save our children from indoctrination and allow them to know what is slowly becoming a secret, that America is a place worth falling in love with again and-most importantly-fighting for.
