Excerpt from Before the Committee on Public Health of the House of Representatives in the Matter of the Consideration by the Committee of House Bill No. 2785: Argument of J. Coleman, of Counsel, Submitted March 20, 1884 The fact that Congress for the second time, with full knowledge of the situation, took the disposition of this money from the Board of Health and placed it under the control of the Secretary of the Treasury, is evidence of this fact, and that it has been wisely, economically, and properly disposed of by the Secretary cannot be successfully questioned. All parts of the country which have been afflicted by epidemic diseases have testified to the efficiency of this Service as conducted by Doctor Hamilton, and I beg here to call particular attention of the committee to the communications on this subject from the governor of Texas, on pages 11 and 12 of the pamphlet filed with your committee by Doctor Hamilton, being Treasury Department Document No. 550, and also to the communications referring to the same subject found on pages 12, 15, 16,...
