Montoya, Johnson and Peterson share a house and The English Major of the house, Lorenzo Montoya has come up with a bi-monthly scary story contest that he has named, Horror-101, in which the three of them compete to win a very highly coveted prize. Lorenzo Montoya begins the night with a story he calls, Till Death Do We Part? It is a story of a man that married for money, but he must get rid of his rich nagging wife, Kathleen and her little dog too. The plan goes perfectly except for one little detail. Next, Johnson tells a story he Calls, Big Kahuna and Turtle. This is a totally tubular tale of a beach bum surfer everyone calls, the Big Kahuna, who inherits a fortune, a mansion and a huge responsibility when his crazy recluse uncle dies. Big Kahuna takes his long-time friend, the Extraordinarily Exceptional Zen Master of the Waves, Turtle with him...
